A short guide to changing menu items for the AtHomeNet system

To change menu items you must be an administrator for your community. Start by logging in.

The screenshot shows the AtHomeNet Demo website. At the top, the title "AtHomeNet Demo" is centered. Below it is a navigation menu with items: Home, Login, For Sale, Contact Us, Amenities, Buy CommunityDocs, eForms, and What's Nearby?. The "Login" menu item is highlighted, and a mouse cursor is pointing at it. A dropdown menu is visible under "Login" with options: Resident Login and Request Login. Below the navigation menu, the main content area features a "Welcome home!" heading and a paragraph of text: "Welcome to our community web site. Feel free to explore the features available to the public on this site. If you are a resident of our community, click here to log into the private side of the web site. If you have not been notified of your login name and password, please complete the Login Request Form." To the right of the text is a photograph of a man and a woman standing in front of a large, two-story house with a porch. At the bottom of the page, a footer states "This site is provided by AtHomeNet".

Under the Admin panel select "Manage Menu."

The screenshot displays the AtHomeNet Demo website interface. At the top, the title "AtHomeNet Demo" is centered. Below it is a navigation bar with links for Home, My Profile, Activities, News, For Sale, Resources, Feedback, Board, and Admin. The Admin link is highlighted, and a dropdown menu is open, listing various administrative options. A hand cursor is pointing to the "Manage Menu" option. The main content area shows a "Welcome to our Community!" message with a placeholder for a private home page popup. Below the welcome message is a "Welcome" graphic with a family photo. At the bottom, there is a "Live Right Live Well" banner and a "WHAT'S NEW" section.

Welcome to our Community!

On behalf of the Board of Directors, welcome to our community website! Feel free to explore the many features available on the site.

The purpose of the web site is to improve communications within the community and allow residents to quickly and easily find information about the happenings in our community. The site will only be as good as we make it, so please contribute any content that you think would be helpful and let us know what would make the site more useful to you.

Welcome

Menu items can be dragged and dropped to rearrange order, or they can be edited or deleted by hovering over an item and selecting the appropriate button.

The screenshot shows the 'AtHomeNet Demo' interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: Home, My Profile, Activities, News, For Sale, Resources, Feedback, Board, and Admin. Below this, there are two tabs: 'Private' and 'Public'. Two buttons are visible: 'ADD MENU ITEM' (red) and 'APPLY CHANGES' (blue). A timestamp indicates 'Last Update: 7/7/2016 4:35:09 PM'. The main content area is divided into sections: 'Home' (Logout, Site Search, What's New), 'My Profile' (Account Info), and 'Activities' (Amenities, Events Calendar, Photo Albums, Reservations). The 'Amenities' item is highlighted, and a mouse cursor is hovering over the 'Edit' button, which is highlighted in blue. A 'Delete' button is also visible next to it. To the right, there is a 'Training/Education' section with links: 'Watch Menu Manager Video Tutorials', 'Explore Other Training Videos', 'See What's New from AtHomeNet', and 'Contact Support'.

Once you select edit you can change where the items link to and the security behind the items.

Once you're happy with the menu items select "Apply Changes" at the top of the page or your changes will not be visible.
